

How do I get help?

Simply call our self-referral telephone helpline to make an appointment. One of our therapists will answer any questions you may have and can discuss your problem with you over the phone in a sensitive and caring manner. Your GP can also refer you to the service.

Appointments can be offered in your GP practice, local health clinics, over the phone, or home visits can be arranged if necessary. Evening appointments are available.

Who are we?

The Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Wellbeing Service is a team of NHS experts that are attached to your GP practice. We specialise in treating the kinds of common problems that affect all of us at some time. The therapies we provide are evidence-based treatments in line with National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) guidance, which is a national recommendation of best practice.

Our therapists work in your GP practice and can offer appointments there, or in one of our clinics in your local community. Our aim is to make effective treatment as convenient as possible for you to fit into your life.

What problems can we treat?

We offer treatment for common mental health problems, as well as physical health problems (as one usually affects the other), such as:

- Low mood (depression)
- Worry and anxiety
- Panic
- Social anxiety
- Phobias
- Obsessions & compulsions
- Post-traumatic stress
- Health anxiety
- Chronic fatigue
- Irritable bowel syndrome
- Chronic pain
- Sexual problems

What do we provide?

At your first appointment, a therapist will work with you to reach a shared, detailed understanding of your problem. They will then explain the range of effective treatments that we offer, which include:

- Cognitive behavioural therapy
- Interpersonal therapy
- Couples therapy
- Counselling
- Guided self-help
- Group workshops and short courses

We also offer advice on:

- Improving sleep
- Medication (side effects)
- Problem solving (e.g. employment, financial, housing, relationships)
